The Journal of Bank Cost and Management Accounting

Article Submission Guidelines

The Journal of Bank Cost and Management Accounting, published by the Association for Management Information in Financial Services (AMIFs) seeks articles on issues relevant to the management accounting profession. Articles should be on a subject of interest to practitioners in the field of bank cost and management accounting and should reflect the views of the author. Authors should not hesitate to submit articles that present a minority or unusual view as long as that view is effectively presented. A sample copy of the Journal can be viewed from our website www.AMIFs.org.

The Journal is published three times a year and distributed to 700 subscribers worldwide. The Journal publishes articles that have not appeared or been accepted for publications elsewhere. Exceptions to this policy may be approved of the author obtains a release from the copyright holder. Likewise, all contributing authors will be required to complete an AMIFs Copyright Agreement.

Although no direct sponsors or advertising is accepted for this publication, sponsors or practitioners can gain visibility by authoring relevant articles. Articles published in the Journal entitle the author to any one of the following benefits:

- One year subscription to the Journal
- One year of AMIFS membership
- $350 Discount on AMIFS workshop on the Institute
- One issue advertisement in the AMIFS Bulletin
- 20 copies of the Journal

Guidelines for Preparation of Manuscripts:

Format – The entire manuscript, including text, footnotes, charts, and quotations, must be provided in an electronic format as follows:

- Documents accepted in Microsoft Word or compatible program.
- The document should be prepared in Times New Roman, font size 12, and single spaced.
- Supporting files, charts, graphs may be sent in Excel or PowerPoint.
- All charts, tables or non-text elements must be in black and white. No color submissions of any kind will be accepted.
- Maximum height and width of any graphic is 7" high and 4.25" wide.
- Any articles submitted with mathematical equations or special characters should also be supplied as a PDF file, as some of these special characters may not translate in a Word Document.

All contributing authors will be expected to proof their articles on two occasions prior to final print.

Length – The preferred length of manuscripts is between 2000 and 5000 words. Manuscripts of any length will be considered. The final determinant of an acceptable length is the subject matter of the article. The Editor reserves the right to edit manuscripts for length.

Style – Punctuation should be kept simple, adding to the readability of the article. Tables and exhibits should be numbered. Footnotes should include author's name, title of reference, publisher, and date. Unless a direct quote is used, no page or volume numbers are required in footnotes. References or bibliographies should be included at the end of the document.

Review and Editing:

Submission – All manuscripts should be e-mailed to AMIFS at AMI@AMIFs.org or sent on a diskette/CD to the address above. Please include an Adobe pdf as an illustration of the preferred final view if possible. If manuscripts include copyright material other than quotes, a letter of permission to reprint from the copyright holder must accompany submissions.

Review/Editing – Articles are screened by the Editor and may be sent to other reviewers for comment. Manuscripts are evaluated based on coverage of the subject matter and whether it will be of interest to readers. Each manuscript is edited for grammar, punctuation, and structure, and may be returned to the author for suggested changes.

The review process generally takes 2-4 months. If a manuscript is accepted for publication, the Copyright Agreement must be signed and returned within 10 days for final approval. Published articles become the property of AMIFS and may not be reprinted without permission of the publisher.
